

Laughs and lessons
for your group with...

The IMPROVprofessionals

in our hilarious duo-keynote Top-Ten Countdowns

Every scene and song will be created on the spot
— based on your attendees' ideas!

We'll be counting down a "Top Ten" list of principles on the topic you choose.

Then, for each item, a relevant life story and/or improvisation game both entertains and brings the point home to your attendees.

"Laugh In The Fast Lane"
Milo Shapiro (right) with Lee Krevat

Choose from ten-point lists like these:

- Management and teamwork
- Sales
- Customer service
- Work safety concerns
- And more!

Entertainment, interaction, and education
all rolled up in a package that Pfizer called
"The perfect end to our off-site day."

"Whose Line-Manager Is It Anyway?"

"My managers were actually quoting management points from your Top Ten List at our next staff meeting!...everyone got to participate."

⇒ Sempra Energy; Chris Baker, VP and Chief Information Officer

"Your message was fun, clear, and helpful, while being thoroughly enjoyable."

⇒ Kodak Corporation; Deb Hogan, Gen'l Manager and VP of US Sales

Custom, insightful messages delightfully wrapped in humor!

- The actors in "The IMPROVprofessionals" have created thousands of scenes over the past ten years in various troupes.
- Bringing a mixture of corporate and stage experience, the IMPROVprofessionals create a show filled with stories, scenework, interaction, and laughter.
- The IMPROVprofessionals take real life concerns, mix them with improv games and real life stories, producing a well-rounded "keynote event" for your group.

IMPROVprofessionals Milo Shapiro and Laura Willcock are pictured here.
Others players are also available.

Seriously funny lessons!

Call your booking agent today to bring this creative fun to your event!